#language en It looks like you have not created your [[WikiHomePage|personal home page]] yet.

A personal home page can be used to publish data "about yourself", such as:

- who you are, what you do, what you like or dislike
- your phone number, email address or other contact information
- a photo of yourself

You also can use a personal home page to store information "for yourself" (and maybe also for others), such as:

- your favourite links
- your todo list
- your notes

Keep in mind that a personal home page is usually "public", anyone can read and edit it (and this is a good thing, see it as a means of communication with you). However, you can create protected sub-pages to restrict public access to some of your pages.
